Name _____ last first (as it appears on your passport) M.I.

RWU ID Number _____

Year of Program Participation: 20_____

Campus Phone Number _____

Instructions

Complete all parts of this application as well as all parts of the Center for Global and International Program's (CGIP) Application for Admission. Return all the items listed in the checklist below to CGIP.

Application Checklist All the following items must be returned to CGIP:

- Completed CGIP Application for Admission
- This Statement Page completed in full and signed
- Academic Recommendation Form: This form must be completed by one of your college/university professors who has direct experience with your academic work and personal ability to be successful in this educational program. This form is found in this application packet.
- Essay: A typed, clear, thoughtful, carefully prepared essay must be submitted with this application. It should not be more than 2-3 double spaced pages. Include your name and signature on it as well as the program name, semester and year for which you are applying. Your essay should address why you have chosen this particular program; what your goals for participation are and how the program will help you achieve these goals; how you plan to incorporate this experience into your academics, personal life and career goals; and what interests you about the host country and its culture.
- Housing Request Form: Complete in full and sign. This form is found in this application packet.
- Three passport-size (1-1/2" x 2") photos: Print your name on the back of each. They must be on photo paper and are in addition to photos needed for the CGIP Application for Admission and your passport application. They do not have to be identical to the picture in your passport and will be used for a student ID card and application files.

Review of your application will begin as soon as all parts are received. Decisions regarding acceptance will be based on a judicial and academic background review. Seating is limited and priority is given to theatre and dance students participating in theatre and dance programs.

Agreement

I understand that: 1) submitting an application for this program does not guarantee acceptance; 2) I must meet program requirements and be approved by the CGIP; 3) participation is also subject to availability; 4) my disciplinary records will be reviewed and will be a factor in evaluating my application; 5) I must complete the CGIP Application for Admission in full before I can be considered; and 6) I am responsible for a $50 non-refundable application fee and a $600 deposit as stipulated on the Application for Admission.

I hereby release and forever discharge Roger Williams University and its members individually and its officers, agents and employees from any and all claims, demands, rights and causes of action of whatever kind, arising from or by reason of any personal injury, property damage, or the consequences thereof, resulting from or in any way connected with my participation in the program. I further covenant and agree that for the consideration stated above I will not sue Roger Williams University or its members individually, its officers, agents, or employees for any claim for damages arising or growing out of my voluntary participation in this program.

I hereby authorize officials at any educational institution that I have attended, including Roger Williams University, to release my academic and disciplinary records (including but not limited to records maintained by the Registrar, the Department of Housing, and/or the Office of Academic Affairs) to the Center for Global and International Programs.

I further acknowledge that the information provided on this application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I fully understand that providing false information during the application process may be grounds for rejecting my application or grounds for dismissal without compensation from the study abroad program.
