

Assistant/Associate Professor of Education – Special Education
(Mild – Moderate Disabilities)
Tenure-Track
Ref # FAC10-021
School of Education

Review of applications will begin October 19, 2009 and will continue until the position is filled.

Description and Responsibilities:

The School of Education invites applications for a tenure-track position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level in Special Education - Mild-Moderate Disabilities, beginning in Fall 2010. We seek applicants with strong teaching skills, experience in partnering with urban public schools, and a commitment to social justice and high quality education for all students.

Primary responsibilities include teaching courses in special education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Other responsibilities include academic advising, supervising students in the field, serving on university committees, and maintaining an active agenda of scholarly activity.

Qualifications:

We seek applicants with strong teaching skills, experience in partnering with urban public schools, and a commitment to social justice and high quality education for all students. The successful candidate will have an earned doctorate in special education or a related field by Fall 2010, and at least five years of K-12 teaching experience in special education. Candidates with experience working with English Language Learners will be given preference.

Contact Person:

Please contact the search committee chair, Dr. Bruce Marlowe at bmarlowe@rwu.edu for further information.

To Apply:

Applicants should submit the following: an application letter that includes a statement of teaching philosophy and research interests; a current curriculum vitae; copies of graduate transcripts; and the names and contact information for at least three references.

Please submit application materials electronically, referencing position # FAC10-021, to Dr. Bruce Marlowe at bmarlowe@rwu.edu

About Roger Williams University:

Roger Williams University is a 52-year-old independent, residential, coeducational liberal arts university, named in 2009 by U.S. News & World Report as the seventh-ranked baccalaureate college in the north. RWU is committed to global citizenship and “learning to bridge the world.” With 39 academic programs and a robust array of co-curricular activities on its waterfront campus in historic Bristol, R.I., RWU seeks to fulfill its mission of preparing students for life as 21st century citizen-scholars. The School of Education is one of seven schools at RWU and offers students the opportunity to receive an excellent professional education. Roger Williams University offers outstanding benefits, salaries commensurate with qualifications, and a superb quality of life in a scenic setting. Please visit <http://www.rwu.edu/> for more information.

Roger Williams University is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to inclusive excellence and encourages applications from underrepresented populations.