

Assistant Men's & Women's Track & Field Coach

Roger Williams University is seeking an Assistant Coach for sprints, jumps & relays during the outdoor season. Additional job duties include conditioning and practice planning, practice and performance evaluation, meet management, and a strong commitment to all phases of recruiting as well as other duties assigned by the Head Coach or Athletic Director.

In conjunction with the Track & Field program, there is a responsibility for the development, coordination, and supervision of an ongoing program of recruiting to insure that players of high caliber ability matriculate at the University for success on a conference and a regional level with strong potential for NCAA ranking. This is a part time position that will last until the end of the spring semester.

We are currently seeking candidates with a Bachelors of Science degree, preferably from an accredited four-year collegiate institution. In addition, experience in coaching and knowledge of the fundamentals, tactics, and strategies of intercollegiate sports with the ability to recruit talented players for the program. Additional qualifications include experience in and willingness to develop programs for fundraising when required for the support of the program. Knowledge of and experience in conducting an intercollegiate program within the confines of the rules and regulations of the NCAA, ECAC, and other conference affiliations.
