

EDU 330 – Issues in Multicultural Education

Prerequisites: EDU 200 and EDU 202

An introduction to multicultural educational theory and practice in the United States. Topics will include racial and ethnic diversity, linguistic diversity, religious diversity, social class diversity, and exceptionalities, as well as discussion of such issues as racism, sexism, ageism, ablism, and so on.

(3 credits) Fall, Spring