

EDU 360 – Art and Practice of Secondary School Teaching I

Prerequisites: EDU 363; Admission to the School of Education's Secondary Education Program. Junior standing only

A comprehensive overview of the essential elements of secondary school teaching. Students integrate teaching theory with field-based observations of teaching practice. Weekly teaching and learning lab sessions are a central feature of the program. Topics to be emphasized include: instructional models, standardized and performance-based assessment of learning, teaching to diverse populations and learning theory.

(3 credits) Fall