

EDU 513 – Contemporary Issues in Health Education

This course is designed to have prospective students become knowledgeable in the K-12 National and RI Health Education Standards. The RI Health Frameworks are used as content standards for this course. Topics explored include: health promotion, disease prevention, health-enhancing behaviors, and issues regarding both substance and child abuse. This is a one-credit course and meets on two Saturdays during each semester.

(1 Credit)