

EDU 626 – Guiding Learning in Content Areas, K-12 (elective)

This course stresses the reading and writing processes and strategies students need in order to understand content area text. It addresses the fundamental procedures related to integrating the language arts across the curriculum. Instructional strategies will combine the reading and writing processes across all content areas. Current research and strategies for working with content, students and colleagues will be integrated throughout the course.

(3 Credits)