STUDENT GUIDE

Top 10 Things to Remember When Having Friends Over:

Be aware of the Alcohol Quantity Policy.

Small gatherings consist of some of your closest friends coming by to hang out in a responsible way. The quantity policy for each student of age is 15 beers OR 1.5 liters of wine OR 1 pint of hard alcohol (no higher than 80 proof). This quantity may be multiplied by the number of legally aged occupants, but may not exceed 60 beers OR 3.0 liters of wine OR 1 liter (2 pints) of hard alcohol in any room at any time. Empty containers will be counted towards the quantity limits. Grain alcohol and handles (1.75L) of alcohol are prohibited.

Noise attracts staff members... and annoys neighbors.

Be smart, respectful and considerate of others in your community.

It's okay to be sober.

You can have fun without alcohol. Trust us. Try it out.

Open containers are prohibited outside.

This is a Rhode Island state law, in addition to an RWU policy, and it will be enforced. This is especially pertinent to those living in the apartments, regardless of age.

Pick your favorite friends.

Apartments and residence hall rooms are not designed to accommodate large groups. Keep it small and keep it safe. You should know everyone's names. Remember, you are responsible for all of your guests.

Alcohol and underage students do not mix.

Serving underage guests or allowing them to drink in your room/apartment does not make you look cool... especially when you get slapped with some serious fines and heavy sanctions. It violates campus policy and the law. Make good choices.

Drinking games are prohibited.

Seriously, they are. The campus prohibits anything designed for or manipulated to promote the rapid consumption of alcohol. This includes, but is not limited to: beer pong, funneling, Quarters or altered board games. Kegs, beer balls, ice luges and "jungle juice" are also in this category.

Empty containers need to be recycled.

As previously stated, empty containers count against your limit. Keep your room/apartment clean and help out the environment at the same time. Do not litter outside or break bottles so that people have to worry about broken glass. Don't be that guy/gal.

Keep an eye on your friends!

Make sure to stick with the people you've been hanging out with all night, and monitor how they are doing. Having to call a staff member, Public Safety, an ambulance or their parents ruins everyone's evening.

South Campus is now DRY!

Please remember that alcohol is prohibited in South Campus, even for students that are 21 years old. Don't make the mistake of bringing alcohol to South Campus or you could be documented for an alcohol violation.

15 beers OR 1.5 liters of wine OR 1 pint of hard alcohol

Students hosting alcohol gatherings are subject to a loss of residency

Any social gathering or party, which draws attention to itself in a negative manner within University Housing, will not be permitted. Parties will be identified by University officials based on a variety of factors including but not limited to:

- Number of guests: the maximum number of people allowed in a room equals the number of inhabitants x5 when alcohol is present
- Excessive quantities of alcohol and/or alcohol empty containers
- Games that promote the rapid consumption of alcohol (such as beer pong) are prohibited
- Underage drinking: the room occupants are primarily responsible for what occurs in their dwelling, regardless of who brings the alcohol
- Disturbing the peace, noise, and/or people immediately outside the room/apartment
- Uncooperative residents and/or guests

The University strictly prohibits all common source containers of alcohol (empty or full), including but not limited to kegs, beer balls or other items or activities that encourage the rapid consumption of alcohol.
