

ROGER WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

A. DEFINITION

A "conflict of interest" exists whenever an officer, agent or employee ("University Party") misuses, or creates the appearance of misusing, their position at Roger Williams University ("RWU") for personal advantage not authorized or benefiting the best interests of RWU. A conflict may occur anywhere along a broad spectrum of actions ranging from overtly criminal conduct to behavior that could potentially lead to a reasonable perception of ethical impropriety.

B. PREFACE

RWU has a long-standing policy of forbidding any activity that creates a conflict between a University Party's obligations to RWU (including its approved affiliates) and the University Party's private interests, be they personal, financial, proprietary, familial or political. This policy statement is issued for the guidance and direction of both the University and University Parties. Both the policy and its procedures, enabling enforcement, will be administered fairly and equitably.

C. STATEMENT OF POLICY

As an institution of higher education, serving the State of Rhode Island, the higher education community, and the general public, RWU is cognizant that it occupies a position of trust. RWU therefore accepts an unequivocal obligation to preclude the occurrence of legal and ethical impropriety, including the appearance of impropriety, on the part of its University Parties.

RWU forbids any conduct that places, or carries a reasonable likelihood of placing a University Party's personal, financial, proprietary, familial or political interest in conflict with the law, RWU's best interests, RWU's contractual obligations or RWU policy. University Parties with fiduciary and/or supervisory responsibilities shall not knowingly condone a clear conflict of interest and will be held accountable for enforcing this policy.

To facilitate compliance, RWU requires self-disclosure of an existing conflict or potential conflict. A potential conflict is defined as any circumstance that creates a reasonable doubt as to legal or ethical propriety under this policy or the law.

This policy statement applies to all University Parties.

The specific examples offered below illustrate some of the types of conflict that require both self-disclosure by the University Party and corrective action. The following items are to be understood as an illustrative guideline, and not as a comprehensive or exhaustive list of prohibitions:

- Unauthorized pursuit and/or maintenance of any non-RWU business interest and/or professional endeavor that significantly interferes with the University Party's commitment of time and professional energy to RWU;
- Unauthorized utilization of RWU research findings, facilities or derivative tangible or intangible products for private financial advantage, direct or indirect;
- Unauthorized utilization of privileged, proprietary RWU information, gained through a position with RWU, including any affiliated enterprise, for utilization in private business or in private, non-RWU-affiliated research or consulting endeavors;
- Unauthorized exertion of intentional, direct or indirect influence in contractual matters or other operational matters between RWU (including its affiliates) and any private enterprise in which a personal, financial, proprietary, familial and/or political interest is involved;
- Unauthorized acceptance or extension of other than de minimus monetary, personal or other reasonably discernible favors from or to a private enterprise with which RWU conducts business or persons with whom RWU conducts business;
- Unauthorized engagement of an RWU student or another University Party as an employee, consultant, or third party contactor of a business, research or consulting venture in which the University Party holds a significant ownership or financial interest;
- Undisclosed familial relationship with students or University Parties where one party to the relationship holds either decisional authority, recommending authority, or significant influence over the academic, economic and/or employment standing of the other party;
- Solicitation or acceptance of personal favors (including sexual favors) from students or other University Parties or third party contractors in return for positive academic evaluation, financial consideration, improvement in employment status or other significant consideration related to RWU operations;
- Undisclosed and unauthorized maintenance of an interest in both a private intellectual, professional, scientific, or technical endeavor and an RWU or affiliated endeavor in the same or a similar intellectual, professional, scientific and/or technical field.

Conflicts of interest may arise unintentionally and certain situations, though not presenting an actual conflict of interest, may carry an unacceptable appearance of impropriety. Additionally, some potential or actual conflict situations may be amenable to RWU and/or affiliate authorized alternative measures to achieve non-conflicting resolution without forfeiture or may be acceptable under close scrutiny and strict adherence to prescribed parameters. Not all conflicts are forbidden. Periodic and situationally specific disclosure, therefore, serves as not only a necessary measure to ensure compliance with policy but affords potential, compatible resolution to a conflict or the appearance, under reasonable scrutiny, of a conflict of interest. For this reason such disclosure is a necessary policy mandate.

It is not the intent of this policy to authorize or encourage needless intrusion upon any individual's personal behavior or endeavors. It requires self-disclosure. While vigilant enforcement is expected, reckless or malicious publication, including the passing of rumors by third parties is discouraged, may expose the publisher to private legal liability and may be subject to sanctions by RWU.

D. PROCEDURES

1. Disclosure

Self-disclosure is not only the least invasive means of ensuring compliance with this policy but also affords the opportunity for mutually compatible resolution of actual or potential conflicts of interest. The responsibility for full self-disclosure rests with each University Party.

Disclosure necessitated by a developing or potential conflict should be disclosed immediately and directed to the attention of either the University Party's immediate supervisor or, at the University Party's option, RWU's General Counsel. Any developing or potential conflict of or with the General Counsel shall be directed to the attention of RWU's President.

Periodic disclosure is required of each University Party, as part of the formal evaluation processes governing affected University Parties of RWU. Disclosure shall be made either through completion of the attached "Annual Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form" or through certification to RWU in a signed letter, which addresses all issues specified in the RWU-provided form. At least annual conflict of interest disclosure submitted on or before a time reasonably set by the General Counsel, is mandatory and, subject only to the other provisions of this policy, is to be filed with the Office General Counsel. The General Counsel's disclosure is to be submitted to the Board of Trustees' Executive Committee.

2. Consultation and Review

The Office of General Counsel is available at each University Party's discretion for consultation as to whether a specific set of circumstances constitutes a real conflict of interest or the potential for real conflict in violation of this policy.

Such consultation will be treated as confidential to the greatest degree practicable in conformity with RWU regulations and applicable law. Following consultation, responsibility for formal self-disclosure remains with each individual University Party.

All disclosures are subject to review by the Office of General Counsel as advisor to the President, Provost, Vice Presidents and Deans for conformity with policy and procedure.

E. CONSEQUENCES OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Disclosed conflicts will be managed in a manner acceptable to RWU and the University Party wherever feasible and warranted. Conflicts reasonably deemed unmanageable will be forbidden and the acts or omissions driving the unmanageable conflict will be halted.

Undisclosed, known and reasonably discernible conflicts are subject to RWU sanctions as is continuation of any conflict deemed unmanageable and therefor forbidden.

Attached hereto, as Appendix A, is the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form authorized for disclosures pursuant to this policy.

Policy Reauthorization Donald J. Farish / 05/22/12
Dr. Donald J. Farish, President / Date