

RWU Wireless Network Guide

This guide will walk you through the proper procedure for connecting to wireless at RWU. There are several wireless networks available on campus for different groups of people and areas. Please see below for a list of Networks on campus.

Network Name	Users	Location	Notes
"RWUResNet"	Students	Dormitories	Requires Registration and password
"Students1"	Students	Academic Buildings	Requires Registration and password
"Academics"	Faculty/Staff	Academic Buildings	Requires Authentication
"Public"	Conference Attendees	Conference Buildings	Restricted in speed and capability
"LCPVD"	Law Clinic Users	Providence Campus Law Clinic	Requires Authentication

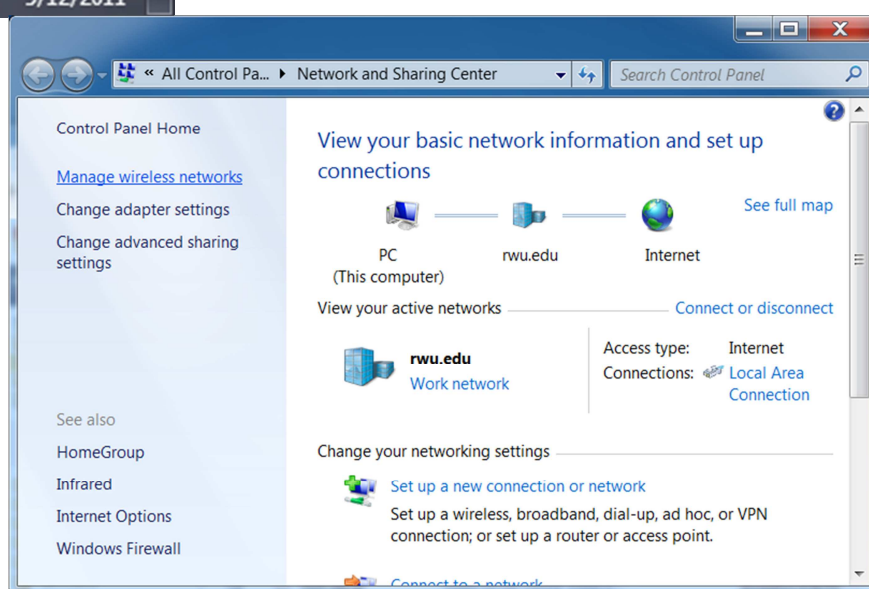

Academics/LCPVD:

If you are using a University-supplied laptop, authentication will happen automatically and no additional setup will be required when joining the network. If you are an Adjunct Faculty using your own equipment, please follow the below steps on windows 7:

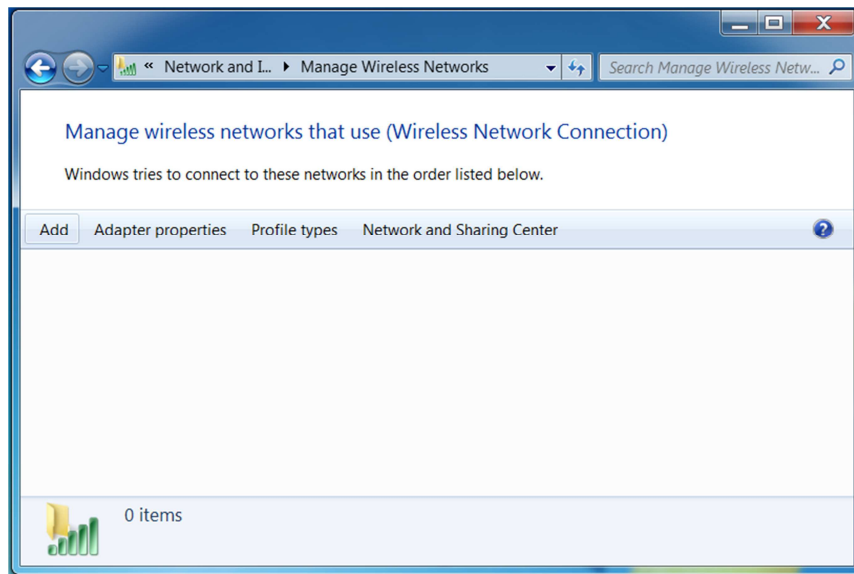

We need to make some changes to how your computer connects to the wireless networks on campus. First, right click the computer icon in button right of your task bar. Then, click "Network and Sharing Center"

Once the "Network and Sharing Center" window is open, click the manage wireless networks link in the left side of the window.

After clicking “OK” attempt to connect to the wireless network. You can do this by left clicking the wireless icon in the bottom right hand corner of your screen, followed by clicking the network you would like to connect to.

You will then be presented with the login window., as seen on the left. If you are a faculty your username is “Academics\” followed by your first initial, followed by your last name. If you are staff your username is your first initial, followed by your last name. For example, academics\jdoe.

Note: The above process will only need to be performed once for configuring the wireless network on your computer. You will be prompted to login to the network each consecutive login.

On Macs:

Click the wireless icon on the top Finder Bar, followed by clicking on the Academics wireless network. You will be prompted to login immediately.
