By law, all students needing an F-1 student visa to study in the United States must provide proof of financial support. Hence, the I-20 immigration form (required for all F-1 student visa applicants) will only be issued by RWU when this form, an equivalent form, or an official bank statement is submitted. This form must be correctly signed and certified by the student and the sponsor. All documented sources of support must be stated in English, in U.S. dollars, and dated within the last six months. This information is not needed to make an admission decision and therefore can be submitted after the student has been accepted and has decided to enroll at RWU.

STUDENT'S OFFICIAL STATEMENT

I acknowledge that U.S. Immigration law requires me to provide Roger Williams University with the accurate financial documentation before an I-20 can be issued to me. I understand that I must document the availability of funds equivalent to the cost of one year of study at Roger Williams University.
