

HONORS CAPSTONE PROJECT DECLARATION FORM

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

The Honors Capstone Project is an independent research, creative, or applied project in which the student is expected to exhibit command of a particular area of study and, in turn, make a unique contribution to the scholarship in the field. The Honors Capstone Project must be supervised by a faculty mentor. At least part of the work on the project must be connected to a credit-bearing experience (capstone course, thesis course, independent study, senior seminar, etc.). All Honors Capstone Projects must be pre-approved by the faculty mentor. Projects conducted within an independent study or research course must also be pre-approved by the dean of the school hosting the independent course.
