

RWU Alcohol Policies and Guidelines

Students Under 21

2010-2011

Sponsored by the Alcohol and Other Drug Task Force

Top things to remember when you are under 21:

South Campus is DRY.

All alcohol, including empty containers, is prohibited anywhere in the buildings or surrounding areas regardless of a person's age. This includes parking lots and walk ways.

It's okay to be sober.

You can have fun without alcohol.
Trust us. Try it out.

If it's your room,
you are held responsible!

Did you know that if someone brings alcohol into your room and you are underage, you will be written up for an alcohol violation? Your room is your home and you will be held accountable for what happens in it.

Drinking games are prohibited.

Seriously, they are. The campus prohibits anything designed for or manipulated to promote the rapid consumption of alcohol. This includes, but is not limited to: beer pong, funneling, Quarters or altered board games. Kegs, beer balls, ice luges and "jungle juice" are also in this category.

Be aware of the Alcohol Quantity Policy.

Small gatherings consist of some of your closest friends coming by to hang out in a responsible way. The quantity policy for each student of age is 15 beers OR 1.5 liters of wine OR 1 pint of hard alcohol (no higher than 80 proof). This quantity may be multiplied by the number of legally aged occupants, but may not exceed 60 beers OR 3.0 liters of wine OR 1 liter (2 pints) of hard alcohol in any room at any time. Empty containers will be counted towards the quantity limits. Grain alcohol and handles (1.75L) of alcohol are prohibited.

Keep an eye on your friends!

Make sure to stick with the people you've been hanging out with all night and monitor how they are doing. If someone has had too much to drink and needs help, be sure to contact the RA or Public Safety so they can get the medical attention they need. RWU is a community that cares about each other.

Remember, the RWU guest policy states that you are responsible for the actions of your guests.

That means, you need to stay with your guests at all times and ensure that they act appropriately. Be sure to get a guest pass at myRWU and you can read the policy at <http://housing.rwu.edu/guestpass/>.

If you are in the presence of alcohol, as an underage student you will be found responsible for a conduct code violation.

Stay away from parties where alcohol is being served. Even if you are not drinking, you could be found responsible for a code violation. And, the party host will get a violation if you are found in their apartment (which they won't be very pleased about).

When an RA comes to your door, please cooperate!

The way to quickly make a bad situation worse is to be disrespectful, rude or uncooperative toward staff members. Keep yourself and your guest in check. As a reminder, RAs simply document situations, they don't make decisions about outcomes.

Almost all alcohol violations come with housing de-merit points.

That means you lose points towards the housing lottery! Be smart, make good decisions and you will have your choice of housing next year!

Policies and Sanctions:

We would like to take this opportunity to remind you about potential consequences for your behavior. RWU's expectations of you have remained the same. We expect that you will act appropriately and abide by all University codes as well as state and federal laws. We remain committed to creating a campus environment that is conducive to student success.

AOD Sanctions

The following tables represent the minimum sanctions for violations of the University Code of Student Conduct. Students found responsible for three alcohol violations within a 12-month period or two drug violations during their RWU academic career will be removed from university housing for at least one semester. Hearing officers may look beyond the 12-month period and/or increase the severity of sanctions depending upon the severity of the behavior, a student's past disciplinary record or the specific incident's impact upon the campus community.

University Alcohol Quantity Policy:

For students age 21 or older, the following amount of alcohol allowed is:

15 beers OR 1.5 liters of wine OR 1 pint of hard alcohol

Students hosting alcohol gatherings are subject to a loss of residency

Any social gathering or party, which draws attention to itself in a negative manner within University Housing, will not be permitted. Parties will be identified by University officials based on a variety of factors including but not limited to:

- Number of guests: the maximum number of people allowed in a room equals the number of inhabitants x5 when alcohol is present
- Excessive quantities of alcohol and/or alcohol empty containers
- Games that promote the rapid consumption of alcohol (such as beer pong) are prohibited
- Underage drinking: the room occupants are primarily responsible for what occurs in their dwelling, regardless of who brings the alcohol
- Disturbing the peace, noise, and/or people immediately outside the room/apartment
- Uncooperative residents and/or guests

The University strictly prohibits all common source containers of alcohol (empty or full), including but not limited to kegs, beer balls or other items or activities that encourage the rapid consumption of alcohol. Such items and/or common sources will be confiscated and disposed of when discovered. In addition, the University prohibits the sale and/or distribution of alcohol to underage students. Violations of this policy will receive enhanced sanctions outlined in the grid above.

Medical Amnesty Policy

The Medical Amnesty Policy was created to promote community bystander behavior and safety of our students. It allows students to call for help when experiencing a medical emergency related to drug or alcohol intoxication without fear of disciplinary action. If you or a friend is experiencing such a medical emergency, contact Public Safety at 401-254-3611. For more information on this policy, go to:
