Soaring into Leadership!

Emerge Tier Application

SOAR is a three-tiered leadership program designed to enhance student learning and development, its aim is to help students understand the integral role of the individual in a group and society, and to facilitate positive social change in the Roger Williams University community.

This experiential program involves a series of workshops, social events, small group discussions, capstones and a culmination project. If interested, please fill out the following information and return it to the Department of Student Programs and Leadership (located in the Campus Recreation Center).

If you have any questions please contact Sean Thompson sjthompson@rwu.edu.

*If you apply and are accepted, you will be required to attend the mandatory SOAR Lift off Retreat on February 2, 2013. Classes start the week of February 4th.

Please provide brief answers to the following questions on a separate piece of paper:

1. What is your personal definition of leadership?

2. What do you hope to gain from being a part of SOAR? Why is it important to learn more about who you are and what you value as you develop your leadership potential?

3. How will knowing more about leadership make you more successful in your future career, your involvement at Roger Williams, and in other endeavors?
