

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

The International Business major at RWU prepares graduates to lead and manage multinational companies around the globe, emphasizing sustainability and social responsibility. Students benefit from a diverse curriculum. Students will study topics and areas such the European Union, emerging markets around the globe, and U.S. interaction with organizations based outside of the United States.

STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Learn and Do More at RWU

With a focus on experiential learning at RWU, International Business majors:

- Gain real-world experience by conducting field study, completing internships, and participating in a co-op practicum in International Business.
- Collaborate on research with faculty members who are experts in their fields. Students have co-authored papers with faculty on the “net-zero” carbon emission economy, corporate social responsibility of Brazilian auto companies, and financial modeling for new business ventures.
- Work on projects and assignments in classrooms hosting Bloomberg technology and through the rCloud, which enables student access to virtual desktops customized to business study.

- + Do you want to travel and explore other cultures and ways of doing business?
- + Do you want to learn more about how products and services are introduced and promoted around the world?
- + Are you interested in the dynamism and change of American and international markets and their impact on each other?

CAREER OUTLOOK

RWU International Business alumni are working in many capacities such as:

- Launching a business to provide IT solutions
- Consulting for a global management consulting firm
- Serving as project manager for a defense contractor
- Managing international human resources for a consumer protection agency
- Marketing for a global juvenile product company

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

I've had great professors for my whole experience at Roger, especially in the Gabelli School of Business. My advisor provided me with a lot of internship opportunities and connections.

CURRICULUM

The International Business program prepares students for successful global careers through a unique curriculum focusing on major global marketplaces and emerging markets. Students apply their skills through courses that incorporate hands-on-research projects, field study, and study abroad.

Important topics such as the role of sustainability in business decision-making, corporate social responsibility, ethics, and cultural and organizational diversity are included in the curriculum. Through their coursework, students engage in reviewing and finding viable solutions to complex problems that span borders.

Special Courses

International Business offers specialized courses including:

- Multinational Corporations
- International Business and Trade Disputes
- International Management
- International Finance and International Marketing

Get a Great Internship

100% of International Business majors complete an internship, gaining real-world experience and applying their skills and knowledge with a company, nonprofit, or government agency. These internships often lead to full-time post-graduation job opportunities. Our students intern at organizations such as:

- Chafee Center for International Business
- Gulf Oil
- ParsonsKellogg
- Plan USA
- R.I. Economic Development Corporation

Business Core Curriculum

Through the Business Core curriculum, students develop a strong foundation in all aspects of business, from the principles and theories of enterprise to accounting, economics, and management.

Add a Second International Degree

RWU offers a unique double-degree program with partner universities in France through which students can earn a Bachelor of Science in International Business from Roger Williams and a Bachelor of Business Administration from either the ICN Business School or the University of Strasbourg, both in France. All courses in these programs are taught in English.

Earn your BA/BS and MBA in 5 years

Interested in getting an MBA? The accredited 4+1 Master of Business Administration program allows you to earn both the B.S. and MBA degrees in just 5 years. The program includes strategic thinking, problem solving, data analytics, and leadership skills to thrive in a competitive business environment. A guaranteed internship, and international study component provide practical, real-world experience, preparing you for a successful career anywhere in the global economy.
