- A. The following are reasons for which the Contract may be cancelled, subject to the submission of proper documentation and the approval of the Department of Residence Life and Housing Each request to cancel will be determined individually. B. Any occurrence that prevents the University temporarily from rendering full performance under this Contract, such as war, fire, flood, or other disasters, pandemic, epidemic, order or act of governmental authority, state of emergency and/or strike or work stoppage, whether by University or other employees, shall not constitute grounds for cancellation of the Contract by the Student.

Approval of an accommodation does not guarantee placement in a specific residence hall, apartment, or room type unless required by law.
- E. Departure from University Housing without written approval shall be deemed a breach of this Contract and does not relieve the student of financial responsibility under this Contract.

E. FACILITY-BASED CONTRACT CANCELLATIONS.

 - A. All residents are responsible for maintaining their assigned rooms, apartments, and any shared or common spaces in a clean, sanitary, and safe condition at all times.
 - B. In apartment and suite-style housing, all occupants share responsibility for the cleanliness and maintenance of common areas, including living rooms, kitchens, bathrooms, and hallways. These common spaces are not routinely cleaned by Facilities staff during the academic year unless the entire apartment is vacant at the conclusion of a semester.
 - C. Failure to maintain assigned spaces and common areas in an acceptable condition as designated by Residence Life and Housing or the Department of Environmental Health and Safety may result in damage charges, cleaning fees, conduct action, and/or termination of this Contract.
- G. HEALTH AND SAFETY INSPECTIONS

Residents may not engage in conduct intended to pressure or harass another resident out of an assigned space.
- B. If the University determines that a resident has attempted to forcibly remove, harass, or exclude another resident from an assigned space, or that the living environment has become disruptive or unsafe, the University reserves the right to reassign any or all occupants of the space to alternate housing locations.
- C. Reassignment under this section may involve relocation of all involved residents and does not guarantee placement in the same residence hall, apartment, room type, or housing style, nor placement of all involved individuals together.
- D. Behavior intended to force another resident from housing may result in conduct action, relocation, termination of this Contract, and/or other sanctions as permitted by University Policy.

7. MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY AND PROCEDURE

- A. A resident who expects to be away from their residence hall for four or more consecutive days while classes are in session is urged to inform their resident assistant (RA) and provide information about whereabouts and contact information in case of an emergency. Students are responsible for informing their parents/guardians of such an absence to avoid alarming them if they are unable to contact their student.
- B. Roger Williams University has established a Missing Student Notification Policy and Procedure for Students Living in On-Campus Residence Halls that allows students to designate an individual(s) to be contacted by the University if the student is determined to be missing by the Department of Public Safety or local law enforcement. The policy is available at the following URL: https://www.rwu.edu/sites/default/files/downloads/RWU_Missing_Student_Notification_Policy_and_Procedure.docx
- C. It is important that all students maintain current emergency contact information on file with the University, regardless of whether they live in an on-campus residence hall or off-campus. Students should designate and update, as necessary, their emergency contact information in the Emergency and Missing Student Contact Information Section of Roger Central.
- D. To designate or update missing student contact information and emergency contact information, complete the following steps:

8. HOUSING ASSIGNMENT POLICY

- A. The Department of Residence Life and Housing is responsible for developing and implementing a process in assigning University Housing to students. Each student agrees to meet the terms of the room assignment procedure as publicized by the Department of Residence Life and Housing. Failure to meet these terms may forfeit the student's right to a housing assignment.
- B. In order to accommodate a maximum number of students and to effectively use existing facilities, it may be necessary to assign some students to temporary accommodations. Withdrawals and cancellations will usually permit these students to be transferred to permanent rooms or apartments assignments. The University will determine the number of students to be assigned to each room or apartment. No more than this number of residents will be permitted in each area.
- C. The University reserves the right to change the status of a residence hall or area during the year. Students who are unsure about the specific alcohol policy for the living area they reside in should contact their Building Staff or the Department of Residence Life and Housing.
- D. The University reserves the right to change room or hall assignments or to consolidate vacancies by requiring students to move when necessary. When a vacancy occurs, the University reserves the right to assign a new occupant. If the student already assigned to the room/apartment is resistant to the new occupant moving in, the current resident may be reassigned. This open space should be readily available with no inconvenience to the newly assigned student. It is the responsibility of the student already assigned to the room to insure the readiness of that space. This means that the current occupant must maintain the following conditions: beds/mattresses be separated and dressers/drawers/closets (or any other furniture provided by the university) must be kept empty, unused and clean. Failure to prepare the space for a new occupant may result in a fine and/or conduct review.
- E. The University reserves the right to make housing assignments, to move a student to another housing facility, consolidate open spaces and to remove a student from University Housing, when, in the University's opinion, general living conditions for any resident or the well-being of the University will be improved by such a move. Students must follow the conflict resolution process within the Department of Residential Life and Housing (i.e. discussing situation with an RA, bringing the matter to the attention of an Area Coordinator, attempting to put forth mutually agreed upon action plan, etc.). When roommate conflicts occur and the residents cannot resolve their differences, the Associate or Assistant Director of Residence Life and Housing, or a designee, may choose to move one or all residents of that room/apartment to any vacant spaces. Students will be responsible for any financial differences. The University reserves the right not to allow a student to sign into a certain area based on academic performance or conduct history. The University reserves the right to change room occupancy at the conclusion of an academic year.

9. ROOM/APARTMENT CHANGES

- A. Room changes are generally permitted throughout the academic year except for designated periods during the semester as stipulated by the Department of Residence Life and Housing. Students must follow the policy and procedures in room changes as announced by the Department of Residence Life and Housing. No room changes will be permitted for at least the first two weeks of any semester to allow the Department of Residence Life and Housing the opportunity to ascertain where housing vacancies are located. Room changes will also not occur while students are in temporary housing. Students that request a room change are responsible for any financial difference from one living area to another.

- B. No student will vacate, exchange, or transfer rooms/apartments without prior written authorization from the Department of Residence Life and Housing. Students who do so may be referred to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution. Students who withdraw from University Housing without properly notifying the Department of Residence Life Housing and completing the appropriate paperwork will be assessed a $50.00 improper checkout fee and an additional $150.00 if their key is not returned. Students are not permitted to lease/sublease/rent any portion of the room/space/apartment.

- A. Students are responsible to check-in and check-out of assigned rooms as stipulated by the Department of Residence Life Housing. All students, for their own protection, are required to complete a Room/Apartment Condition Report form at the time they move into and leave University Housing or when a room change occurs throughout the academic year. Failure to do so prevents verification of room condition at the time of moving in when that condition is compared against the room condition at the time of moving out. In such cases, occupants must accept the University's assessment of damages. A final inspection and damage assessment of all rooms/apartments will take place by University professional staff after all residents have vacated the residence halls. Students can refer check-in/check-out questions to their RA, their Area Coordinator, or to the Department of Residence Life and Housing.

B. KEYS/LOCKS.

- A. The University provides a lock for the exterior door of each room or apartment in University operated housing facilities. The student agrees to refrain from using additional locks or other security devices on any doors (including bedrooms) or to change any existing locks. The duplication of any keys is strictly prohibited. Each student must return all room or apartment keys at the end of the academic year, at the time of an authorized room change or upon withdrawal from the University. Room and apartment keys must be turned in at the time of check-out, within those guidelines stipulated by the Department of Residence Life and Housing.
 - i. Failure to return all keys will result in a fee being assessed to the student for a door lock change and a new full set of keys. In the event an occupant loses a room/ apartment key, the student must report this to the Department of Residence Life Housing and follow the guidelines stipulated by the Department of Residence Life and Housing to be reissued a key. A fee will be charged to occupants for replacement of lost keys and/or door lock changes.

C. ROOM AND APARTMENT PAINTING/FURNISHINGS/CARE.

- A. Students are not permitted to remodel, paint or to make any structural changes to the premises, outside or inside, nor to attach, detach or remove any furniture, or repair any damages. Students are not permitted to remove any furnishings, appliances, or equipment from their living quarters or other part of the University. No University furnishing may be placed outside. The University has the right to enter a student room for repairs, general maintenance of residential facilities, cleaning, and health & safety inspections.

- B. Students are responsible for cleaning their assigned room or apartment and for returning living areas to the University in like condition, normal wear and tear excluded, upon withdrawal from University Housing. C. PET DEPOSIT.

1. All residents approved to reside in Pet Friendly Housing with an Approved Pet are required to submit a non-refundable pet deposit of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per academic year. The pet deposit is assessed per academic year and per Approved Pet and does not limit the resident's financial responsibility for damages beyond normal wear and tear.

D. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DAMAGES.

1. Residents approved to have a Pet are fully responsible for any and all damages, cleaning costs, repairs, pest treatment, or replacement of University property resulting from the presence of the Approved Pet in assigned spaces or common areas. The University reserves the right to assess charges beyond the pet deposit for damages exceeding normal wear and tear, including but not limited to flooring replacement, furniture repair, odor remediation, flea or pest treatment, and deep cleaning.

E. CARE, CONTROL, AND CONDUCT OF APPROVED PETS.

1. Residents are responsible at all times for the care, supervision, and control of Approved Pets. Approved Pets must be housebroken, properly restrained when outside the assigned space, and must not pose a threat to the health, safety, or reasonable enjoyment of others. Failure to properly care for, control, or clean up after an Approved Pet, repeated damage to University property, excessive noise, odor, or behavior concerns may result in revocation of Pet Friendly Housing approval, reassignment, conduct action, and/or termination of the Housing Contract.

F. UNIVERSITY AUTHORITY

1. The University reserves the right to relocate residents, impose reasonable conditions, restrict pet privileges, or revoke approval for any Approved Pet when necessary to protect the health, safety, or reasonable enjoyment of the residential community or to comply with University policy and operational needs.

G. ROOMMATE CONFLICTS INVOLVING APPROVED PETS

1. In the event of a conflict between residents related to the presence of an Approved Pet, the University will make reasonable efforts to work with all involved residents toward an appropriate resolution. When a conflict cannot be reasonably resolved, the University may reassign one or more residents as necessary to protect the health, safety, and reasonable enjoyment of the living environment. In such cases, the resident without the Approved Pet may be reassigned to an alternate housing location when appropriate.
2. Reassignment decisions are made at the discretion of the University and do not guarantee placement in the same residence hall, apartment, room type, or housing style.
