In some states, pharmacy law allows an FDA-approved generic equivalent drug to replace a brand-name drug. You or your doctor may say you will only accept the brand name drug. Just be aware that you may also have to pay any difference in cost.

Sending this form to PrimeMail also means you agree to allow information to be shared with your health care plan and its agents. Prime's treatment of Protected Health Information (PHI) follows the federal privacy regulations established by HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996). PrimeMail may contact your doctor to ask for more information or to share a safety concern. As a result, your doctor may decide to prescribe a different product that works just as well.
