

IT Student Worker Position: Networking Assistant

The Network Assistant will assist the Network Administrator in the performance of a variety of duties. Main responsibilities include testing of network connections and installation of network devices. This position requires excellent organizational and communication skills. Computer science or Networking experience preferred.

Job Responsibilities:

- Assist in testing and the installation of network devices.
- Assist in checking of network data connections
- Fabricate, punch down and terminate cables.
- Test and diagnose data communication problems.
- Assist in maintaining network documentation.
- Maintain a positive and professional attitude.
- Other duties as assigned.