

“I Was Afraid to Be a Woman”

At thirty-two, “happily” married, with four fine children, why would a woman feel a compulsion to kill herself? Here is a story of the bewilderment and hidden anguish that touches countless husbands and wives.

Photos by Maxwell Coplan

