STRETCH YOUR HAWK WINGS
& PREPARE TO SOAR!

Transitions & Growth

- Talk about your orientation experience, beginning on your car ride home!
- Prepare for SEPARATION to begin - it's NORMAL! Allow your student the space to begin doing for themselves ... if you haven't already begun to do so.
- Reflect on your transitioning roles:
 - Students: Evolving, independent adult learners
 - Families: Consultants

Family Conversations

- ✓ Everyone's expectations
- ✓ Your family's values & your student's ability to make good decisions
- ✓ Time management
- ✓ Your student's independent learning responsibilities
- ✓ Communication & wellness plans for the fall
- ✓ How to self-advocate & the need to be resilient (student & family!)

Student's Summer To-Dos

- Check (frequently!) your RWU email account and Guidebook.
- Engage in all family decisions about college life.

Student's To-Dos

Complete ALL 3 REQUIRED “Hawks Online Courses”
by Wednesday, August 25th

 Students will receive an email directly to their RWU account with access to the courses on/around July 26th*

Be sure to remember ...

- Students will need professional/business casual clothing for presentations & networking events.
- Health insurance card (physical copy & picture in cell photo album)
- Documents needed for campus employment: photo ID/copy of SS card/birth certificate
- Medication - Will prescriptions be transferred here? Where will they be stored? Do they need to make arrangements (on-campus or off-campus) for follow up?

Other things to consider...

- Buying or Renting Textbooks - what is your student's best option?
- RESIDENT STUDENTS: How will your student get home for weekends or in case of an emergency?
- COMMUTER STUDENTS: Is their vehicle maintenance up to date? Have they applied for a commuter parking permit?

We look forward to welcoming you to campus in August ...

SEE YOU
SOON!
