

Name: Arnold Robinson, AICP	Director, Community Partnerships Center	Full Time
 Courses Taught:
HP 525 Preservation Economics		(elective)
HP 526 Preservation Law and Regulation		(elective)
HP 551 History and Philosophy of Historic Preservation		(elective)
HP 681L Historic Rehabilitation Workshop		(elective)
HP 682L Preservation Planning Workshop		(elective)
 Educational Credentials:
Master of Arts, Preservation Studies, Boston University		1994
Bachelor of Arts, American Studies, Bates College		1987
 Teaching Experience:
Visiting Assistant Professor of Historic Preservation, Roger Williams University		2010/11
Adjunct Faculty, Roger Williams University		1996, 2009
 Professional Experience:
Principal, Newport Collaborative Architects, Newport, RI		1999-2009
Executive Director, Providence Preservation Society, Providence, RI		1990-99
Preservation Planner, City of New Bedford, MA, Department of Housing and Neighborhood Development		1988-1990
 Professional Memberships:
Member, American Institute of Certified Planners		2001-
Town Council Appointee, Town of Bristol RI Building Committee		2008-
Town Council Appointee, Bristol RI Redevelopment Authority		2004-2006
Advisory Council, Grow Smart RI		1997-