

THE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE GUEST LECTURE SERIES

“ PERSPECTIVES ON LEADERSHIP ”

DAVID C. WAJSGRAS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER, RAYTHEON COMPANY

Steering a dynamic, multifaceted company in any economy requires innovation and experience. In today's challenging economic climate, renowned financial executive David C. Wajsgoras draws on his finance and operations expertise from more than two decades of leadership development at top corporations Lear and Honeywell International to direct financial operations as senior vice president and CFO of worldwide security and defense contractor Raytheon Company. A graduate of the University of Maryland and American University, he is also the Executive Champion of Raytheon's Persons with DisAbilities Employee Resource Group, an organization that works as a strategic partner across the company to facilitate a fully accessible and supportive workplace for employees with disabilities.
