

QUESTION:

A drunk minor
hits a pedestrian
with his/her car

Whose fault is it?

Serving
alcohol
to a minor is
NOT a minor crime

Answer

The 21+ year old who served or supplied the alcohol to the minor

Whether you throw a party, or invite people over to watch the game or simply hang out with friends in your residence hall, you could be held responsible should one of your guests or friends become intoxicated and harm themselves or someone else.

Lawsuits can be brought by innocent victims injured by an intoxicated person or by the intoxicated person himself. It can cost you thousands of dollars.

Is it worth it?